Clutter can: • Overwhelm the senses • Consume space • Drain energy from our surroundings • Cause stress and anxiety This book will show you how to lighten up so you can walk into your home and be surrounded only by the things you love. Living in a minimalistic way means clearing the clutter from your life to focus on what's truly important. Chances are, 75% of the things in your home are no benefit to your life at all. You'll also find that throwing out a few garbage bags feels even better than therapy. Why do you hold onto things? Here are just some of the reasons:

- Addiction—shopping is a high and the novelty wears off.
- Approval—keeping material representations of who we are is one way we show off.
- Identity—we identify with what we own so that's why we're upset when something is stolen or broken.
- Obligation to others—we please others by keeping gifts and inherited things we don't really like or need. By letting go of possessions that no longer serves us, we can
