From one of Canada's greatest journalists comes this classic study of the country's history, culture, and society. First published in 1942, The Unknown Country won the Governor General's Award for non-fiction and cemented Hutchison's reputation as the nation's pre-eminent political commentator. More than 60 years later, The Unknown Country offers an unforgettable portrait of a country hauntingly familiar yet lost beyond recall.

Each summer for the past ten years I have written a "Summer Series," that has been published in a local paper. This past year (2017) I started "The Curious Life of Marci Bell," a story about a 12 years old girl who was sold to a family to be the bride of their 17 year old son. The story is set in the 1920's here in North Florida and is loosely based on a true story. The real story had been told to me many years ago by a woman who actually had been sold for that very reason when she was 12 years old. When she told me her story and the many turns and bends of her life I became fascinated with what she said and thought at the time, her life had certainly been the makings of an epic novel and at the least extraordinary. I pondered for a long time how to write such a story and last year I decided it would become a summer series. In "Part One," the young girl, Marci Bell is sold for corn, two pregnant sows, two barrels of syrup and some moonshine whisky to be the wife of a 17 year-old man. Each Clymer manual provides specific and detailed instructions for performing everything from basic maintenance and troubleshooting to a complete overhaul of the machine. This manual covers the Harley-Davidson XL Sportster built from 2014 to 2017. Do-it-yourselfers will find this service and repair manual more comprehensive than the factory manual, making it an indispensable part of their tool box. Specific models covered include: XL883L SuperLow (2014-2017), XL883N Iron 883 (2014-2017), XL883R Roadster (2014-2015), XL1200C 1200 Custom (2014-2017), XL1200CA Custom Limited A (2014-2016), XL1200CB 1200 Custom Limited B (2014-2017), XL1200CP 1200 Custom (factory custom) (2014-2016), XL1200CX Roadster (2016-2017), XL1200T SuperLow (2014-2017), XL1200V Seventy-Two (2014-2016), and XL1200X Forty-Eight (2014-2017).

With the Falmouth army decimated, Rimuru's transformation into a Demon Lord finally begins. A successful evolution would mean unlocking new powers and a chance to resurrect the dead, but as Rimuru and his followers are forced into a deep sleep, the future is all but certain. Fortunately, the mysterious demon Rimuru summoned has every intention of seeing his master return as the slime he always was, no matter the cost...

Everything you need to know to restore or customize your classic Japanese motorcycle. Whether you want to correctly restore a classic Japanese motorcycle or create a modified, custom build, you need the right information about how to perform the mechanical and cosmetic tasks required to get an old, frequently neglected, and often long-unridden machine back in working order. How to Rebuild and Restore Classic Japanese Motorcycles is your thorough, hands-on manual, covering all the mechanical subsystems that make up a motorcycle. From finding a bike to planning your project to dealing with each mechanical system, How to Rebuild and Restore Classic Japanese Motorcycles includes everything you need to know to get your classic back on the road. Japanese motorcycles have been the best-selling bikes in the world since the mid-1960s, driven by the "big four": Honda, Yamaha, Suzuki, and Kawasaki. Of course certain bikes have always had a following - Honda CB750, 305 Hawk, CB400-4, Benly; Suzuki GT750, Katana, GS1000S; Yamaha XS650, RD400 Daytona, TZ; Kawasaki H1, H2, Z1R - and these have now become the blue-chip Japanese bikes leading collectors to seek out more common (and now more affordable) alternatives. This is the perfect book for anyone interested in classic Japanese motorcycles, as well as prepping a bike to build a cafe racer, street tracker, or other custom build.

the required English language support into the program and providing a complete English language development component to assist students transitioning into English.

In 1922, at the age of two, Petey's distraught parents commit him to the state's insane asylum, unaware that their son is actually suffering from severe cerebral palsy. Bound by his wheelchair and struggling to communicate with the people around him, Petey finds a way to remain kind and generous despite the horrific conditions in his new "home." Through the decades, he befriends several caretakers but is heartbroken when each eventually leaves him. Determined not to be hurt again, he vows to no longer let hope of lifelong friends and family torment him. That changes after he is moved into a nursing home and meets a young teen named Trevor Ladd; he sees something in the boy and decides to risk friendship one last time. Trevor, new to town and a bit of a loner, is at first weary of the old man in the wheelchair. But after hearing more of his story, Trevor learns that there is much more to Petey than meets the eye. Petey is a touching story of friendship, discovery, and the uplifting power of the human spirit.

I want to show the world how darkness can sometimes be so beautiful book in 65 days The author of The Worm in the Bottle offers a probing examination of our contemporary world in this second poetry collection. Shadows in the Light is a modern-day testimony to the complexities of life. With imagery that is by turns lush and starkly beautiful, author and poet Betsy Reavley explores the difficulties we all face. With surprising resonance and far-reaching scope, these poems exemplify the universal power of poetry.

The forts and castles of Ghana form a unique memorial to a precolonial period when representatives of European trading companies bartered as equals with African merchants. It was a colourful episode of world history spanning four centuries, from the fifteenth century Portuguese voyages of discovery to the beginnings of the imperial epoch. This book traces the history of more than fifty forts, castles and trading posts built on Ghana's coasts by various European nations. Each entry is accompanied by a descriptive guide and black and white illustrations. Albert van Dantzig, originally from Holland, has lived in Ghana since 1963 and is the senior lecturer in history at the University of Ghana, he is the author of two previous books; The Dutch Participation in the Slave Trade and The Dutch on the Guinea Coast, 1680-1740. Presents photographs and descriptions of thirty-two machines that have made significant contributions to motorcycling history
